

Hochschule Osnabrück
University of Applied Sciences

MBA-Higher Education and Science Management

Osnabrück University of Applied Sciences

Hans Vossensteyn

Delegation University of Rijeka, Enschede, 15 September 2016

Contact persons

Study programme leaders

Prof. Dr. Frank Ziegele / Prof. Dr. Hans Vossensteyn

Scientific leadership

Programme Coordinators

Alexander Rupp, Freya Gallenkamp

Advice, Planning, Coordination, Organisation

MBA: Profiling Characteristics

Career guided MBA

Management techniques + institutional
Knowledge + personal development

Professional practice orientation

MBA: Four curricular pillars

Master thesis

System

Management

Leadership
&
Soft skills

Practice transfer

MBA: Curriculum

Basic modules

- Foundations of international HE & Science systems
- Foundations of HE and Science law
- Organisation - Governance - Law
- Business economic instruments and methods
- Strategic management
- Operative and process management
- Communication
- Practical projects / internship

MBA: Curriculum

Electives

- Resesarch and Innovation management
- International Relations
- Cost- and Financial management / Controlling
- Human Resource Management
- Quality- and Process management
- Higher education and Science marketing
- Leadership
- Management Game
- Gender and Diversity Management

Study organisation

- Status of participants: full participants, module seekers
- The programme pro-actively organises all formalities with participants through: E-Mail/Post...
- Modules offered annually / Exams each semester
- per Module: 2 x 2 Days (Friday/Saturday) lectures
- Reader = for each module scientific and practically oriented texts and exercises

Historical campus ...

Historical Caprivi-Kaserne, built 1899,
Named after Reichskanzler Georg Leo von
Caprivi, the successor of Bismark

... since 1998 Campus of the Economics Faculty